AERODYNAMIC Accomplishments During Period
1 July 1957 Through 15 October 1958

1. As a result of ZP/UNVR activities at the Brussels Fair:
  - A. Contact was effected with an important Soviet personality of Agency PI interest and arrangements made for future contacts with him.
  - B. Contact was established with numerous other Soviet nationals and arrangements were made for future contacts with three or four of the individuals.
  - C. 162 copies of the Information Bulletin were handed to Soviet nationals at the Fair, as well as 106 copies of the ZP/UNVR organ, the СВОБОДНА УКРАЇНА, and 90 copies of LITERATURA УКРАЇНИ, literary supplement to the СВОБОДНА УКРАЇНА. Sixteen Ukrainian-language books published in the West also were handed to Soviet nationals at the Fair.
  - D. A member of the ZP/UNVR authored a leading front-page article in the Brussels daily LA LIBRE BELGIQUE, titled URSS STAN COLONIALISM AT THE UNIVERSAL EXPOSITION, exposing the rigid imperialism underlying Soviet pretensions of representing a federated union of "sovereign and independent" republics.
2. Food and clothing parcels were mailed into the Ukrainian SSR for the purpose of establishing and maintaining a communication channel for eventual support of clandestine operations into the Ukraine. Contacts made as a result have supplied intelligence which was disseminated throughout the intelligence community.
3. Printed and distributed about 190,000 newspapers, plus approximately 6,000 pamphlets and books. Approximately 70 copies of the newspaper were mailed into the Ukraine, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia and Poland. Approximately 150 copies of books and pamphlets were mailed to Ukrainians living in Poland for mailing or personal delivery to the Ukraine. About 150 additional copies were mailed to ZP/UNVR representatives in Australia, South America and Western European countries for distribution to Soviet visitors in the West and for mailing into the Soviet Ukraine. As a result of the book mailing project, contacts with a number of Soviet Ukrainians have been established and are continuing via mail channels through Poland.
4. Approximately 80,000 copies of the Ukrainian-language INFORMATION BULLETIN were prepared and mailed into the Ukrainian SSR from various countries in the West, including the United States, Canada, Argentina, Australia, Germany, France, Sweden and England. The INFORMATION BULLETIN which contains factual world news, news regarding the Ukrainian emigration and analysis of the distortions and fallacies of Soviet propaganda is mailed to private individuals, libraries, governmental and educational institutions, as well as individual officials and members of the Communist Party.
